(Senate Resolution 400)

Whereas, The full, useful life of Mrs. W. W. Steward Sr. came to an end in Fairfield on April 7, 1963; and

Whereas, "Cousin Mattie Lou" or "Miss Mattie Lou," as she was affectionately called by all who knew and loved her, although she was christened Martha Louise, came to Texas as a young child from Cotton Plant, where she was born on January 3, 1875; and

Whereas, She was the daughter of D. Alexander Steward and Anna Young Black, who moved to Steward's Mill in Freestone County; and

Whereas, She made the church a major part of her life, having been brought up in a strict Associate Reformed Presbyterian family; and

Whereas, She was married on November 11, 1894 to Washington Worth Steward Sr., descendant of one of the pioneer families of Freestone County, in Harmony Church at Steward's Mill; and

Whereas, She was a devoted wife and the mother of five sons, one of whom, J. A. Steward, preceded her in death in 1960; and

Whereas, She lived an energetic and selfless life, continuing to serve her friends and relatives after the death of her husband in 1946; and

Whereas, She will long be loved and remembered by all who knew her and her passing has left a great void in the Fairfield-Harmony Presbyterian Church, of which she was an active member at the time of her death, and in the entire City of Fairfield; and

Whereas, Her cheery smile and pleasant word for everyone she met were especially welcome at the hospital, where she made frequent visits to see those who were ill whether they were mere acquaintances or close friends; and

Whereas, The Senate of the Fifty-eighth Legislature wishes to pay tribute to this wonderful 88-year-old lady who will be sorely missed by her friends and family; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Senate of the Fifty-eighth Legislature, That we extend sympathy to the host of friends and relatives who knew and loved "Cousin Mattie Lou," and particularly to her four surviving sons: Hugh B., Ernest M., Roger and W. Worth Jr., all of Fairfield, and to her five grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren; and be it further

Resolved, That a page be set aside in the Senate Journal in recognition of and in respect to Mrs. W. W. Steward Sr.; that a copy of this resolution be prepared for each of her sons named in this resolution; and that when the Senate adjourns today, it do so in her honor.
